I acknowledge that, if my child is offered a place at King's College, I will be required at the time I accept such an offer to enter into an Admission Agreement with the College governing:

1. the prompt payment of all tuition, boarding and other fees and expenses payable from time to time (and in default thereof the payment of interest and/or withdrawal of my child from the College);
2. the observance by my child of the rules and required behavioural and other standards of the College;
3. full participation by my child in religious observance and instruction at the College, and other outdoor education activities;
4. such other matters as the College's Admission Agreement shall contain at the time I accept the College's offer of a place for my child.

I enclose a non-refundable application fee of $250 (inclusive of GST) and acknowledge that this is an application fee only, and does not oblige the College to accept my child.

I irrevocably authorise the College or any staff member, Trustee, Board member, consultant or professional advisor of the College to furnish to any third party, including but not by way of limitation, the persons named herein as being willing to support this application, details of this application and the information contained herein or to make enquiry of any third party in connection with this application and I irrevocably authorise any third party to provide you with such information as you may require concerning me and my child in connection with this application.

I agree to notify the College of any change in the information contained in this application as soon as is reasonably practical.

(This Application is to be signed by both parents.)
